

INTERCHURCH MEETING IS SUCCESSFUL; METHOD EXPLAINED

Prominent Divines Explain the Purpose of the Great Interchurch World Movement—Charts and Figures Are Interesting.

The first of the Interchurch World Movement Conferences to be held in Maysville which opened at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, came to a close at noon today and the two sessions were greatly enjoyed by good sized audiences and the figures and charts drawn from facts gathered in the interchurch surveys were quite interesting.

Tuesday evening's session was given over entirely to the presentation of charts, figures and pictures on the screen. These charts and figures forcefully brought out the facts gathered in the recent survey made by this movement and the slides were accompanied by interesting lectures. Dr. J. D. Armistead, pastor of the Cynthiana Christian church lectured on the Home and Foreign work while Dr. J. M. Lital, presiding elder of the Covington district of the M. E. church, lectured on the State Field.

Because of bad railroad connections it became necessary to cut today's program short by eliminating the afternoon session and the morning session was quite crowded but was nevertheless very interesting. Splendid addresses were delivered and a round table discussion brought out many of the features of the interchurch work which seems to be little understood in this section. The team in charge of the conference here was headed by Dr. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church, Lexington, and the other members of the team besides those mentioned above are Dr. C. B. Crockett, Shelbyville; Dr. W. A. Eisenhart, Bowling Green; Mrs. J. H. Spillman, Burgin, and Dr. H. C. Weeden, Louisville. The team left here this afternoon for Ashland where a similar conference opens tonight and will close tomorrow afternoon.

LOST GIRL FOUND.

Irene Worthington, 9, daughter of George Worthington, formerly of this city, who was lost in Newport Sunday was found this morning at the home of a negro in Cincinnati.

The Ohio River is rising faster at Cincinnati today than ever in the past. This is because of the big rise in the Miami and Licking rivers.

UNION BARBERS WILL INCREASE PRICE MAY 1st

Journeymen Are Granted a Substantial Increase and Proprietors of Shops Increase Price of Work.

On Monday evening the journeymen barbers in Maysville held a meeting at which they requested an increase in price and an equitable scale which will be applicable to all local barber shops. It seems that in the past journeymen were working at different rates in different local shops but at Monday's meeting they requested a flat rate applicable in all local shops and they placed their figure at 65 per cent. of the work they actually did in the shops.

A meeting of the boss barbers of the city was held Tuesday night to consider the request of the journeymen and their request was granted. In order to meet this increase granted the workmen and in order to meet the constantly increasing cost of living the boss barbers adopted a new scale which will become effective on the first of May increasing the most of their work five cents. This new scale follows:

Shave 20c.; Hair cut 40c.; Shampoo 40c.; Massage 40c.; Shingling 40c.; Tonic 20c.; Outside calls 75c. and $1; Razor honed 50c.; Oil Shampoo 80c.

It is pointed out by the local union barbers that this increase is not a large one and that barbers in practically all of the neighboring towns have been receiving these prices for the past several months.

INVESTORS TAKE NOTICE.

Note these attractive offerings by the O'Donnell Estate:

First—That recently reconstructed business house at No. 218 Market street, occupied by J. A. Simpson, optician. Attractive pressed brick front. The very hub of Maysville's business district. An opportunity seldom equaled.

Second—That modern, newly erected two-story brick dwelling, six rooms and two halls, located at 309 Lime-stone street, Central, yet retired. No dwelling better located or more conveniently arranged. Gas, water, bath.

Both of these properties will be sold at public auction on Saturday next, April 24th. The first property at 11 a. m.; the second at 2 p. m.

Work at framing the thirty new houses to be erected for the Maysville Development Company is progressing rapidly at Mr. J. C. Simons' mill in the Sixth ward. The houses will all be cut out at the mill and will be put together rapidly.

Judge Kerr Will Speak On Republican Party

PROMINENT KENTUCKY JURIST WILL EXPLAIN PRINCIPLES OF REPUBLICAN PARTY AT THE COURT HOUSE TONIGHT

HON. CHARLES KERR.

The court house is expected to be filled this evening when Hon. Charles Kerr, Judge of the Fayette Circuit Court, will speak on the subject, "The Republican Party; Its History and Principles." This subject should fill the court house but when the man who is to bring the message is considered there is every reason to think that there will be overflow and from indications this afternoon, it appears that there will be scores to hear this eminent jurist explain the party to which he is attached.

No man in the entire state of Kentucky is better qualified to make a speech on this subject than is Judge Kerr. He has long been a leader of the party in Kentucky and is a student of matters political equaled by few in the whole of the nation. A more scholarly gentleman could not be found in all of the state and the foundation of his learning was obtained in the common schools of Mason county and the old Baptist Academy in Maysville.

The fact that Judge Kerr is a native of Mason county has created more than the usual amount of interest. In his coming here and this fact alone is expected to bring many out to the meeting this evening.

It should be remembered that the meeting begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock at the Mason county court house. There is no charge for admission and the entire public is cordially invited to attend. There are no restrictions and no conditions. Every one will be made welcome. Maysville and Mason county should honor her son by a very large audience.

BUYS EAST END HOME.

Mr. M. F. Coughlin, local real estate dealer, has purchased the Frank Dietrich home in East Second street, Sixth ward and contemplates extensive improvements to make this one of the most attractive homes in that section of beautiful homes. No section of Maysville is more fitting for the location of beautiful homes than in this section and it is rapidly developing into a select residential district. The residence purchased was built at a time when material was really good and the best of good material was used in its construction. With the extensive improvements contemplated, this home will be one of the best in the city.

SEARCH FOR PARTS OF GLENN'S BODY UNSUCCESSFUL.

Persons here today from Bracken county report that on last Sunday a large crowd of people gathered on the farm formerly occupied by Thomas Markberry and made a thorough search of the entire farm for missing parts of Jesse Glenn's body. Although the party searched for several hours and although their search covered every foot of the farm, nothing was found. The sheriff is now summoning a special jury to try Markberry beginning on next Monday.

MANY GO ON BOAT RIDE.

Despite the very bad night and the late hour of arrival of the steamer Homer Smith Tuesday evening, there were probably more than one hundred local people who took the river excursion trip from this city to Augusta Tuesday evening. The Smith has now gone to Portsmouth and will leave there in a few days for Pittsburgh where she will spend practically all of this season.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the gauge at the Market street grade registered a stage of 40.2 feet, a rise of 1.2 feet since 8 o'clock this morning.

DEMENTED BOY CONFESSES TO THE ABDUCTION OF LAD

Sixteen-Year-Old Boy Tells Story of Coaxing Trimbale Lad Into Field And Striking Him With Hammer.

Danville, Ky., April 21.—Confronted with evidence that, police say, indicated he was the assailant of seven-year-old Willie Trimbale last Friday night, Keith Phillips, 16 years old, said to be unbalanced mentally, Tuesday broke down when questioned by Sheriff J. M. Farris and Deputy Sheriff Polk Crutchfield and confessed the crime.

Later he repeated his story to the grand jury and showed to members of the jury the blood-stained hammer with which he struck the child. Phillips completely exonerated Lucien Jenkins, negro, now in jail in Lexington.

Phillips, in his confession, said that he saw the boy leave the home of a neighbor of the Trimbales and persuaded him to go to an old barn half a mile distant. He forced the child to sleep on the hay all night, he said, and when the boy awoke he accompanied him through a cornfield. When they reached a sink hole, Phillips said, he hit the boy on the head with the hammer. When the lad "seemed to be dead," Phillips said, he threw him over a fence into the sink hole and left him. The grand jury now is seeking to determine if some one hired Phillips to attack the boy.

All of the students were much pleased and greatly enjoy the shorts given them by the various lecturers who are brought to Maysville by the Community Club.

GREATEST DAMAGE DONE IN SPRINGDALE SECTION

Repairs of Damage Done By Tuesday's Storm Will Cost County Thousands Of Dollars.

Although there was much damage done by the rain and wind storms of Monday night and Tuesday in all parts of the county, reports indicate that the greatest amount of damage was done in the Springdale neighborhood in which section, County Officials say, it will require the expenditure of thousands of dollars for the county to put the roads and pikes back in the condition they were before the storm.

Probably the greatest damage done was the tearing out of two large 60-foot concrete bridges near Springdale. These bridges and the large concrete wall wings are completely ruined at a loss of thousands of dollars. Land is washed, hogs were drowned, gardens ruined and several houses were flooded. Mr. George Brevard and family were compelled to wade in water to their waists to get out of their home while the home of Mrs. Emmons, whose husband was killed at dam 35 in an accident last summer, was flooded, and her children were compelled to desert the home.

County Engineer Simons and his crew are now at work putting the pikes and roads in as good temporary condition as possible but Springdale is practically cut off from the balance of the county by road.

FLEMINGSBURG PARTLY FLOODED LAST NIGHT.

Hon. J. P. McCartney, Flemingsburg attorney, was in Maysville today on legal business. He reports the hardest rain storm in Fleming county last night that this section has seen. The lowlands of Flemingsburg were flooded and the water did considerable damage to a quantity of tobacco in one of the Flemingsburg looseleaf warehouses.

L. & N. AGAIN BLOCKED.

The L. & N. Railroad on this division was again blocked Tuesday night by a big washout near Carlisle and the evening train over that road was unable to get through to this terminal. The train arrived here this morning, however, with its passengers and express.

FARM LANDS WASHED TERRIBLY.

Farmers in Maysville today report that their hill land is washed after heavy rains of Monday night and Tuesday as never before. Persons traveling the pikes report much fine dirt washed from the hillside farms onto the pikes and roads.

TORNADOES IN THE SOUTH CAUSE DEATH OF 100

Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee In Path of Storm Which Plays Havoc In General.

Memphis, Tenn., April 21.—Toll of the second disastrous series of windstorms to strike the south this season was being checked today.

Reports reaching here over crippled wires from portions of Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee which were in the path of yesterday's tornadoes placed the number of dead at from 100 to 150.

Ten bodies were recovered in Aberdeen, Miss., one of the storm centers. Meridian, Miss., reported ten dead. Three were dead at Cedar Bluff, Miss., and 12 reported killed in a schoolhouse near Starkville, Mississippi.

Philadelphia, Miss., reported 12. Eight are known to have been killed in Glens, Miss., and the same number in Collinsville, Ala. McKenzie, Tenn., reported ten dead.

According to reports today there were two separate disturbances. One appeared at Meridian, Miss., and worked northward.

Only three deaths were reported from the Tennessee storm.

The path of the Mississippi storm was less than 500 yards wide. At places it narrowed to less than 100 yards.

Rose Hill, Miss., suffered large property damage, according to reports today. No figures on the number of dead there was obtainable.

The highest casualty list was reported from Meridian. The number of dead there was placed at more than 20. Several bodies were reported recovered in Sheffield and Macon.

LOCAL DENTIST NAMED ON STATE DENTAL BOARD.

THE SQUARE DEAL MAN OF SQUARE DEAL SQUARE.

When Will the Prices of Dry Goods and Other Articles Come Down?

Who knows? We confess that we do not, though we are in touch constantly with the producers of merchandise. Advice from Europe state that the output of cotton goods is already contracted for at higher prices for next year, 1921. In United States everything seems to tend to higher prices. The continuing dissatisfaction with wage earners, the walk outs controlling travel, thereby increasing prices of transportation of supplies in various ways, the higher wages upon raw materials and the speculation in them before they reach the tailor or shoemakers—these facts and others are still adding to the cost of everything our customers need. The facts before us today do not point to lower prices very soon. It is also a fact easily substantiated that seven-eighths of the merchandise we own, if sold out at prices now marked, can only be replaced at such costs that cannot be sold at a profit except at a still higher price, which will only add further concern to buyers. Of course, there are changes of seasons that lead to lower prices for some goods that have not been salable or from changes of shapes, colors or fabrics. Now and then there are overstocks that are closed out at lower prices under pressure at end of seasons. The Government taxes also continue to be very heavy and they are all laid on the cost of almost everything.

But under all the circumstances we also know this, that this business is here to supply the public with reliable merchandise at the lowest prices possible in this high-strung condition of affairs.

We will not indulge in expensive sales, nor make a noise for a little while and cause a ripple by Hullabaloo Sales. This store will continue a clear running stream each day and month, bringing before the public the best kind of merchandise we can obtain and control, if possible, and let the people have it at the lowest profit possible to maintain our constantly increasing patronage. We are fortunate to have many things now on sale that will have to be sold at higher prices when these on hand are sold out and when the next shipments come in.
